

St. Paul Uniform Code

St. Paul Catholic High School's uniform is designed to reinforce neatness and conformity, which are both necessary for a successful educational environment. Students who are improperly attired will be sent home to change, or their parent/guardian will be called to bring them a change of clothes. A student's appearance should demonstrate a sense of modesty. Students who frequently need to be reminded about dress code violations (i.e. tucking in of shirts, inappropriate shoes, shaving, etc.) will be liable to lose alternative dress privileges.

Boys Uniform

- Uniform pants, khaki color, flat or pleated front, purchased from Dennis Uniforms (Dennis label on pants) or Lands' End School Catalog (SP embroidered on pants). From the start of school to Columbus/Indigenous People's Day and after April vacation khaki or navy chino Bermuda shorts purchased from Dennis or Lands' End are allowed.
