

ST. PAUL REMEMBRANCE
MASS

NOVEMBER 4, 2025

Our Remembrance Mass provides us with the opportunity to reflect on our departed St. Paul alumni, faculty, staff, relatives and friends.

Rev. Daniel Hackenjos,
Dean of Religious Life will celebrate Mass today.

Our altar servers today are Lance David '27, Selwyn Ignatius '27 and Jordan Murphy '27

All Remembrance Mass intention cards filled out by our St. Paul community, including faculty, staff and students, will be kept on the school's chapel altar and the individuals named on the cards will be remembered in our prayers throughout the school year.

Thank you for joining us today.

OPENING HYMN:

Be Not Afraid

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9

Read by: Emily Horning '26

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples.
On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
The web that is woven over all nations;
he will destroy death forever.
The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from all faces;
The reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken.
On that day it will be said:
"Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the LORD for whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!"

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

Read by: Gwen Healy '26

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING

Romans 5:5-11

Read by: Mason Pachica '26

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Hope does not disappoint,

because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly.

Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die.

But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath.

Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son,

how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

Not only that,

but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

GOSPEL

Luke 12:35-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke:

“Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks.
Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.

And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants.

Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Read by: Vanessa Longo '27 and Mya Colson '27

Our response is: R: Lord, Hear our Prayer

We pray for the Church on Her pilgrimage through earthly life, including Pope Leo, Archbishop Coyne, Bishop Betancourt, Father Daniel, all clergy, religious, and the entire people of God. May we each respond to God's call for us in our daily lives as we yearn for eternal life with Him. Let us pray to the Lord:

R: Lord, Hear our Prayer.

We pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life and for holy marriages, especially from our St. Paul community. May we respond to God's will with a generous heart. Let us pray to the Lord:

R: Lord, Hear our Prayer.

We pray for the whole St. Paul Community, including our administrators, faculty, staff, students and our families. May God strengthen our community to share our gifts and to go make a difference in the lives of all we meet. Let us pray to the Lord:

R: Lord, Hear our Prayer

We pray for humanity who suffers poverty and injustice, violence and hatred, terror and war. May peace reign in the hearts of all. Let us pray to the Lord:

R: Lord, Hear our Prayer

We pray for those who mourn the loss of a loved one, including our guests with us today. May we remember that in death, life is changed, not ended. May we discover new ways of relationship to our loved ones as we hope to join them one day. Let us pray to the Lord:

R: Lord, Hear our Prayer

We pray for those who have gone before us. May they know the fullness of joy in eternal life and intercede for us as our journey continues. Let us pray to the Lord:

R: Lord, Hear our Prayer

IRISH BLESSING

(L. True)

May the road rise to meet you.

May the wind be at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face,

May the rains fall softly on your fields
and until we meet again,

May you keep safe in the gentle loving arms of God.

For everything there is a season

a time for meeting, a time to say goodbye in all things God is near, always guiding your way.

May the road rise to meet you.

May the wind be at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face,

May the rains fall softly on your fields
and until we meet again,

May you keep safe in the gentle loving arms of God.

ST. PAUL AND THE RESURRECTION

Christ now raised from the dead will never die again, death no longer has power over him, Alleluia!

St. Paul teaches:

If we have been buried with Christ,
we shall also share in His Resurrection, for the Father has already raised us up with Him, and made us sit with Him in heavenly places.

Nourished with his body in the Eucharist,
we already belong to the Body of Christ.
When we rise on the last day,
we also will appear with him in glory!

May this message of faith grant all members of the St. Paul family peace, joy and hope this year and in all the years to follow.

Alleluia!

PRAYER OF CONSOLATION

Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us.

As we remember all of our loved ones who have died, we pray that they will have received the promise of eternal life and that they are with you experiencing the joys of heaven.

As we renew our faith in Your Son, whom you raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all of our departed brothers and sisters will share in his Resurrection, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

For those who may know of an alumni, faculty or staff member or coach who may have passed, please let us know so we can remember them in the years to come.
