LIGHT UP ST. PAUL 2020

DECEMBER 4, 2020

ST. PAUL WELCOMES YOU TO OUR 12TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF LIGHT UP ST. PAUL!

Light Up St. Paul is an opportunity to share the Christmas Spirit by remembering and celebrating those that we hold dear, especially throughout this blessed season.

The votive candles donated in memory of or in honor of a family member or friend were lit and placed on our school's Chapel altar.

This year an alphabetical listing by donor's name, is at the end of this presentation.

ADVENT EVENING OF REFLECTION

Prelude – Mr. David Junko and Brianna Wood '24

Opening Hymn – O Come, O Come, Emmanuel
Sophia Gerst '21
Brianna Wood '24
Mr. David Junko

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel, that mourns in lowly exile here until the Son of God appear.

Refrain: Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come o thee, O Israel!

O come, Desire of nations, bind in one the hearts of all humankind; bid thou our sad divisions cease, and be thyself our Prince of peace.

Refrain: Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come o thee, O Israel!

Welcome - Mr. Cary Dupont ‘72

Opening Prayer - Barbara Retartha '21
Heavenly Father, you sent your Son, the Light of the World to show us the way to salvation. As we enter this Advent season, we eagerly await his return as we prepare to welcome him. May the glow of these candles and their growing intensity this Advent heighten our anticipation of Jesus return. So we pray, Maranatha– Come Lord Jesus, come quickly! R/. Amen

Advent Reflection - Sister Marie Benedict Elliott, FSE

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah - Joshua Silva '21
(Isaiah 60:1-4)
Rise up in splendor! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See the darkness covers the earth and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you, the Lord shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they gather and come to you. Your sons come from afar, and you daughters in the arms of their nurses.
The word of the Lord.
R/. Thanks be to God

Psalm 85 - Benjamin Speaker '21

Response: Our Lord will come to save us.
Let us see your mercy
and give us your saving help.
I will hear what you, God have to say,
a voice that speaks of peace,
peace for your people and your friends
and those who turn to you in their hearts.
Your help is near for those who fear you and your glory will dwell in our land. — R/

Mercy and faithfulness have met;
justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. — R/

Yahweh, you will make us prosper
and our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before you and peace shall follow your steps. — R/

A Reading from the Holy Gospel, According to John - Sister Mary Mercy Lee, FSE
(John 1: 1-5, 12-14)
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it...But to those who did accept him he gave the power to become the children of God, to those who believe in his name who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God. And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Advent Meditation – Beyond the Moon and Stars
Sophia Gerst '21
Brianna Wood '24
Mr. David Junko

Refrain: Beyond the moon and stars, as deep as night, so great our hunger, Lord, to see your light. The sparrow finds her home beneath your wing. So may we come to rest where angels sing.

Our eyes have longed to see your loving face, to live within your courts for all our days.

Upon our darkness, Lord, a light has shone. You chose to dwell with us in flesh and bone.

Refrain: Beyond the moon and stars, as deep as night, so great our hunger, Lord, to see your light. The sparrow finds her home beneath your wing. So may we come to rest where angels sing.

Intercessions – Mr. Albert Wallace

To the One who is and who is to come, we pray:

Response – O Come, O Come Emmanuel

That Christ may strengthen his holy Church, and that all preachers of the Word may announce the coming of the Prince of Peace to all the nations, we pray…

For an end to violent conflict in the world, and that government leaders work toward lasting peace and true justice, we pray…

That all the faithful may ready themselves and their families for the hour in which the Son of Man returns in majesty, we pray…

For all who are suffering, especially during this pandemic: that they may be consoled and comforted by the knowledge that Christ is with them, we pray…

That the holy season of Advent may increase our love for and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, we pray…

That we may persevere together in waiting patiently for the Lord, we pray…

Let us now unite all of our intentions and pray together, Our Father…

Adapted from Magnificat. Vol. 22, No. 9. November 2020. p. 401.

Closing Prayer - Sammi Bray '21
Loving God, your word comforts us and enables us to wait for your coming in hope. May we not lose heart but, with joyful and thankful hearts, continue to praise you for the wonder of your incarnation. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Concluding Hymn - O Come Divine Messiah
Sophia Gerst '21
Brianna Wood '24
Mr. David Junko

O come, divine Messiah; the world in silence waits the day when hope shall sing its triumph and sadness flee away.

Refrain: Dear Savior, haste! Come, come to earth. Dispel the night and show your face, and bid us hail the dawn of grace. O come, divine Messiah; the world in silence waits the day when hope shall sing its triumph and sadness flee away.

You come in peace and meekness and lowly will your cradle be; all clothed in human weakness shall we your Godhead see.

Refrain: Dear Savior, haste! Come, come to earth. Dispel the night and show your face, and bid us hail the dawn of grace. O come, divine Messiah; the world in silence waits the day when hope shall sing its triumph and sadness flee away.

THANK YOU

To YOU for joining us virtually this evening.

To those who purchased votives to light up our Chapel this Christmas season.

To Duncan Sheedy for lighting the St. Paul campus.

To Mr. David Junko, Sophia Gerst '21 and Brianna Wood '24 for providing music tonight!

To Sister Marie Benedict Elliott, FSE and Sister Mary Mercy Lee, FSE for their prayerful love and dedication.

To Mr. Wallace for being part of the prayer service tonight in a special way.

To Mark Mazzarella and MazzMedia for providing video lighting in our Chapel.

To the students who were part of our first ever, virtual Light Up St. Paul Advent Prayer Service.

You have all helped make this wonderful evening possible!

FAMILY ADVENT PRAYER

Loving God,
We praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ.
He is Emmanuel, the hope of all people,
He is the wisdom that teaches and guides us,
He is the Savior of every nation.

Lord God, let your blessing come upon us
as we light the candles of this Advent wreath.
May the wreath and its light
be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation.

Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SEASON OF ADVENT

During this Advent, let your light of peace and love shine in our world.
Give us eyes to seethe signs of your presence in the world.
Help us to prepare our lives and our homes
to receive the One who said,

“I am the light of the world.”

Amen
