We set sail from Troas, making a straight run for Samothrace, and on the next day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, a leading city in that district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We spent some time in that city.

On the sabbath we went outside the city gate along the river where we thought there would be a place of prayer.

We sat and spoke with the women who had gathered there. One of them, a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth, from the city of Thyatira, a worshiper of God, listened, and the Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what Paul was saying.

After she and her household had been baptized, she offered us an invitation, “If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my home,” and she prevailed on us.

The Word of the Lord: Thanks be to God

Jesus said to his disciples:

“When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me.

And you also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I have told you this so that you may not fall away.

They will expel you from the synagogues; in fact, the hour is coming when everyone who kills you will think he is offering worship to God.

They will do this because they have not known either the Father or me. I have told you this so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you.”

The Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Prayer of the Faithful...William Kurnik '22 and Olivia Belfonti '22*

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

May Pope Francis, Archbishop Blair, Bishop Betancourt, Father Gancarz, Father Whyte, Father Dietrich, Father Glen, Father Przygocki and all the faithful be a source of enlightenment and guidance for all, especially for those who have lost sight of God’s presence in their lives, we pray, “Lord, hear our prayer.”

In Eucharistic thanksgiving for the Class of 2022 and for our family and friends, may the light of the Gospel shine through us as we discern God’s call in our lives, and may we have the strength to be witnesses of Christ in our world, we pray: “Lord, hear our prayer.”

For the St. Paul administration, faculty, staff, coaches and benefactors, and for all those who have shown us patience and love along our journey of faith and learning, we pray: “Lord, hear our prayer.”

As we bring to the altar today all those who are suffering and those who care for them, those who have died, and those who are grieving, may Christ’s Presence in the Eucharist console them, and may those who have gone before us enter eternal life and intercede for us as our journeys continue, we pray, “Lord, hear our prayer.”

Mr. Cary Dupont '72

At the Last Supper, Jesus took a towel and washed the feet of his disciples sharing that he came into the world not to be served but to serve. From the Gospel of John, it is written, "So when he had washed their feet and reclined at table again, he said to them, "Do you realize what I have done for you? You call me teacher and master, and rightly so, for indeed I am. If I, therefore, the master and teacher have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do."

(Students will receive their blessed servant towel from Archbishop Blair)
